Training:

The FD has been given another acquired structure to train in, and we completed multiple hands on training drills for the month of October consisting of SCBA use and confidence, Rapid Intervention Team training, ladders, ventilation, hose advancement and search. Additionally, trainings were completed in district familiarization and several topics of EMS. Over the month, there were over 181 hours of training for personnel.

If you haven't already, please check out the videos of our trainings posted on our social media!

Public Education / PR:

4th CPR class of the year to be conducted at the Municipal Complex on December 2nd, at 10:00. Sign-up is active on our website

Working on finding a feasible date to conduct another Car Seat Clinic prior to the end of the year

Our Honor Guard has been representing the WFD well, posting the Colors at every TPCA home football game. Additionally, we had one member participate in a joint color guard event at a WEBO football game that was honoring service men and women and first responders

Conducted Fire Prevention week safety talks at Rainbow, Primrose, TPCA, Eagle Pre-School, and BACA

Attended Halloween Parade at Eagle's Nest

Passed out candy on Halloween Night at several of our neighborhoods

WHITESTOWN FIRE DEPARTMENT

Additionally, offered all town employees to sign-up for flu shots. The shots have arrived, and will be distributing to all who signed up soon.
