

WHITESTOWN

INDIANA

- WHEREAS, children are vital to our community’s future success, prosperity, and quality of life, as well as being our most vulnerable assets; and
- WHEREAS, April is National Child Abuse Prevention month; and
- WHEREAS, suspected abuse and neglect of children is the moral responsibility of every citizen to report; and
- WHEREAS, the Town Council of the Town of Whitestown, Indiana (“Town Council” and “Whitestown”, respectively) actively promotes a proactive response to the problem of child abuse and neglect by supporting the efforts of organizations, such as Prevent Child Abuse America, to prevent child maltreatment in all its forms; and
- WHEREAS, all children deserve to have the safe, stable, nurturing homes and communities they need to foster their healthy growth and development; and
- WHEREAS, child abuse and neglect can be reduced by informing families about community resources and services available that could help prevent a family crisis or help overcome one; and
- WHEREAS, finding solutions to prevent child abuse and neglect is furthered by involvement among people throughout the community; and
- WHEREAS, communities that provide parents with the social support, knowledge of parenting and child development, and concrete resources to cope with stress and nurture children, help provide opportunities for children to grow to their full potential; and
- WHEREAS, effective child abuse prevention strategies are better positioned to succeed with the assistance of partnerships created among citizens, human service agencies, schools, faith communities, health care providers, civic organizations, law enforcement agencies, and the business community; and
- WHEREAS, Prevent Child Abuse America estimates that child abuse and neglect affects 1 million American children each year and costs our nation $220 million every day through investigations, foster care, medical and mental health treatment, special education, juvenile and adult crime, chronic health problems, and other costs across the life span; and
- WHEREAS, Whitestown owes a debt of gratitude to concerned citizens and organizations that provide families with services to ensure the physical and emotional well-being of our children; and
- WHEREAS, the Town Council desires to make a positive impact on the future by addressing child abuse and neglect; and
- WHEREAS, the Town Council has previously declared each respective April as “Child Abuse Prevention Month” in the past several years; and
- WHEREAS, in an effort to ensure the continued attention to this important issue, the Town Council desires to establish April as “Child Abuse Prevention Month” in all future years until further action by the Town Council.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Town Council of the Town of Whitestown, Indiana, as follows:

Section 1. The Town Council does hereby declare and proclaim April as CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH each year in Whitestown, Indiana.

Section 2. The Town, through the Town Manager and all of its Departments, is hereby charged with the responsibility of actively promoting Child Abuse Prevention Month in the Town each year in order to make a positive impact on the future through the prevention of child abuse and neglect.

Section 3. The Town Council urges all citizens to take the opportunity to renew their commitment to protecting the children of Boone County; for in so doing, we will enhance the quality of life not only for children at risk, but for the entire citizenry as well.

Section 4. The Town, through the Town Manager, is hereby charged with arranging the planting of a pinwheel garden at the Whitestown Municipal Complex in recognition of Child Abuse Prevention Month each year.

Passed and adopted by the Whitestown, Indiana Town Council on this 12th day of April, 2023.
