General PD Updates

The officers at WMPD have continued to work diligently in their service and protection of the Whitestown Community. While it is difficult to account for every task and accomplishment on an individual and Department wide level, some updates and highlights are below.

- Officers Omar Alanis, Peter Boldt, & Tre Williams started their 16-week Tier I Basic Academy at the Indiana Law Enforcement Academy on January 6th, 2025. We already miss them but are excited as they embark on this landmark journey in their law enforcement careers, and we look forward to their return in April!
- On Saturday, WMPD hosted our 2024 Awards Banquet. This night is dedicated to appreciating our members from all divisions for the hard work they put in day in and day out, and to honor them with accolades for their efforts throughout the year. Officer Cale McCarty received the 2024 Rookie of the Year. Officer Frank Wolfe III received the 2024 "Big Fish Award." Officers Drew Holbrook, Daniel Wines, and Detective Gabe Frieztzsche received 2024 Life Saving Awards. Our entire Criminal Investigation Division received the 2024 Outstanding Police Duty Award as a direct result of their diligent efforts in a shooting that occurred in July, leading to the arrest of the shooter and an accomplice. Officer Kyle Haskins Received our most prestigious award, 2024 Officer of the Year

Training Division

WMPD strives to ensure that our members are mentally and physically prepared to best serve and protect our community by going above and beyond in our training efforts. This month, our officers were busy completing 288 hours of training. Various disciplines were covered in our training efforts including firearms, physical tactics, use of force, Emergency Medical, leadership, legal updates, administrative updates, and simulator/scenarios. Some training highlights from this busy month are below.

- All WMPD members completed virtual Implicit Bias training through Police One Academy.
- WMPD was the host site for the FBI-LEEDA Command Leadership Institute. This course is one of the three “Leadership Trilogy” courses taught by the FBI-LEEDA, and we will be hosting the other two courses later on in the year. Lt. Ben Rutledge, Lt. Brian Minton, and Sgt. Blayne Root all attended this course as representatives of WMPD.
- Officer John Pogorov and Officer Tyke Cockerham attended Advanced Roadside Impaired Driving Enforcement (ARIDE) training, to better equip and prepare them to recognize and assess impaired drivers in their day to day responsibilities as patrol officers.
- Officer Joel Parks attended Basic Criminal Investigation for Street Patrol and New Criminal Investigators.
